There's a reason why Grand Master of the APS and AIPP Accredited Professional Photographer Ian Rolfe says: "I absolutely love Norfolk Island, and it's assuredly my favourite South Pacific destination."

Having widely travelled and photographed throughout the Pacific Ian says of Norfolk Island:

"What renders this setting so particular and so beckoning for a landscape photographer, is the islands sublime scenic beauty, the unique majestic Pines and sea cliffs, its colourful greenness and the locals who give this island its distinctive charm."

Workshop Instructor : IAN ROLFE

As a Professional Photographer, Ian Rolfe specializes in landscape, seascapes and fine art imagery. For over 45 years his love of light and his passionate approach to what light does to the landscape are evident in his photographs.

Ian has travelled throughout the world and has an extensive photo library used in travel brochure work and stock libraries. His first photo column appeared in the 'Photo-master' magazine about eighteen years ago. Since then, he has written over 150 published articles, produced 3 books and sells his images through International stock libraries, such as Getty.

His photographs have been purchased by such institutions as: The National Library of Australia, The British Museum, The BBC, The National Park service, The ABC, SBS, Qantas, Australia Post, French Geographic, Microsoft, Fairfax media, The Victorian Government, Lonely Planet, The Flight Centre, Time Magazine, Mobil Exxon and Walt Disney.

Ian is an associate member of the Australian Institute Professional Photographers, a Grand Master of the Australian Photographic Society, has been awarded the distinction "Artiste" from the International Society of Photographic art, and has also been awarded a medal for special services to the Victorian Association of Photographic societies. Ian currently serves as President of the Victorian Association of Photographic Societies and is also a founding member of the Australian Photographic Judges Association.

Your workshop destination : Norfolk Island

Ian has visited Norfolk Island on numerous occasions. He knows all the best locations and times for wonderful photography. There will be early morning and dusk opportunities for magical light, country roads, farmland, historic buildings, coastline, mountains & rainforest. You'll have over 21 photographic sessions with Ian, as well as evening Photoshop and image critiquing.

As the group size is small, Ian provides maximum tuition time to each photographer no matter their prior experience or skill level. This workshop is open to all levels of photographer, from beginner to advanced.

Take your passion for photography to a whole new level over 10 days on beautiful Norfolk Island.

As a past participant said:

"You learn so much with Ian shooting with a professional, that's why I'm here."
