Mellissa Read-Devine

Mellissa has continuously studied and practised painting and printmaking for over 20 years, honing her art to vibrant optimistic harmony with the natural landscape. Her studio is set in a rural location overlooking the Hawkesbury River (NSW) and is an inspiration for her paintings.

The recipient of many Australian art prizes, Mellissa's style is distinctive with her electric palette and layered application of brush strokes. These characteristics come together presenting unique representations admired by both Australian and international collectors alike.

An Associate of the Royal Art Society of NSW, Mellissa is an art & craft tutor and travels to teach art enrichment workshops around Australia and beyond. Enthusiastic about bringing out the best in her students, Mellissa is optimistic and gentle with instruction and her workshops are very popular.

"The process of painting is joy for me. Florals and landscapes are all around us and with them I never have to struggle for inspiration. I invite the viewer into my world to see contemporary scenes in rich optical mixes of brushstroke and hue." – Mellissa Read-Devine

With a maximum size of 12 painters + partners, Mellissa is now taking bookings for her October 2020 Norfolk Island trip

Partners & Friends who do not wish to participate in the painting workshop are very welcome to come along; there is plenty to do on beautiful Norfolk Island whilst painters are out in the field.

Norfolk Island

There are so many reasons to consider a holiday to Norfolk Island situated a short two hour flight from Brisbane or Sydney and mid-way between Australia and New Zealand.

The beauty of the Island has long been a source of inspiration to painters and artists. Renowned for its tall, majestic pines, high rising cliffs, green undulating valleys, lush rain forest and brilliant turquoise waters over coral reefs. So many arriving visitors are simply astounded, finding countless photographic opportunities.
