YOUR ARTISTIC TUTOR: JUDY SALLEH

Explore enchanting landscapes on Norfolk Island with sought-after sketcher and watercolourist, Judy Salleh and experience the joy of drawing and painting your holiday memories.

An avid Sydney sketcher/watercolourist, never without paper, pen and brush to capture her world in a beautiful palette. Judy runs booked out classes and workshops in Australia and overseas and has a knack for sharing knowledge and coaxing confidence with tips and techniques to suit the individual.

Be inspired to put pen to paper and record your unique experience. As well as guidance, Judy will provide plenty of ideas on how to enhance your visual travelogues with creative lettering and layouts, while also catering to those wishing to focus more on sketching/painting fully realised works of the stunning scenery.

Covering a wide variety of subject matter in amazing locations and suitable for all skill levels, this artistic trip to Norfolk Island allows for easy access to an incredible range of panoramas: from dramatic cliff seascapes framed by the famous Norfolk Pines, to rugged convict era ruins, secluded bays and beaches, glens, creeks and waterfalls and stunning flora and fauna.

Partners & friends not participating in the painting workshops are very welcome to come along on the "Non-Painter Package". You'll find plenty to do on beautiful Norfolk Island whilst painters are out in the field.
